Data protection statement

Personal data

Any personal information submitted by you via this website, such as your name, address, telephone number or any other personal data, is provided voluntarily. You can find out about our services on our website without providing such information. We keep and use personal data solely for administrative purposes to support our services and will under no circumstances pass them on to third parties without your explicit consent, or unless under force of legal obligation.

In accordance with the first paragraph of article 6, letters a and f DSGVO, you give your consent to the processing of your data for these specific purposes. Processing is necessary to the protection of legitimate interests, provided that it does not outweigh the interests or basic rights of the concerned person who requires the protection of personal data.

Right of withdrawal and to information

Even if you have consented to the use of your personal data by us, you may withdraw that right at any time by E-mail at info@editum.de or by letter to ad editum Übersetzung. Lektorat. Sprachdesign., Großgörschenstr. 8, 10827 Berlin (in accordance with article 21 DSGVO) and demand that your information be changed (in accordance with article 16 DSGVO) or deleted (in accordance with article 17 DSGVO). Additionally, if you wish, we will also provide you with information on the type and range of personal information we have saved concerning you (in accordance with article 18 DSGVO). Furthermore, you have the right to restrict the processing of personal data (in accordance with article 18 DSGVO).

Google Analytics / Cookies

This website uses technical systems for web analysis and user-analysis tools such as Google Analytics from the company Google Incorporated, or similar systems from other web analytics providers. This includes the use of so-called Cookies. These are text files that are saved on the user's hard-drive when viewing the website and provide information on usage of the website, such as the time and duration of a visit, and also enable the identification of the IP address of the computer that accessed the website. Under no circumstances do we use cookies to acquire personal information. The information gathered from cookies is transferred to the server of the operator of the analysis services, such as Google, where it is saved in order to provide us with data on the usage of our website, which allows us to continually improve our service for you. Analysis services are not authorized by us to pass this data on to third parties.

Wherever a login function is offered on our website, we work with anonymized session cookies that make it possible to detect whether a user has already registered with our website. This means registered users do not have to re-enter login data.

You can change the setting of your internet browser to prevent the installation of cookies. However, this may result in some website functions not being fully available on your computer

Twitter

Features from the service Twitter are used on our website. These features are offered through Twitter Inc., 1355 Market Street, Suite 900, San Francisco, CA 94103, USA. Through the use of Twitter and the "Retweet" feature, your visited websites are connected with your Twitter account and visible to other users. Through this, data is also transferred to Twitter. As service provider of the website www.ad-editum.de, we have no knowledge of the information content transferred to Twitter as well as their usage by Twitter. You can find further information on this in Twitter's privacy policy at <http://twitter.com/privacy>.

You can change your Twitter privacy and data protection settings in account settings at <http://twitter.com/account/settings>

XING

Features from the network XING are used on our website. The XING AG service provider is at Dammtorstraße 30, 20354 Hamburg, Germany.

With every click of the XING buttons on our website, a connection is made to XING servers. To our knowledge, the saving of personal data or utilization of usage behavior does not occur through this. Particularly, no IP addresses will be saved.

You can find further information on data protection and the XING button in XING's privacy policy at <https://www.xing.com/privacy>.
